

Daniel N. Argiros

President & CEO, Conundrum Capital Corporation

Daniel Argiros is the President and CEO of Conundrum Capital Corporation, a Canadian private-equity real estate management firm that oversees more than $4.3 billion in assets. As an investment leader and serial entrepreneur, Mr. Argiros has launched several successful enterprises in the real estate, infrastructure and renewable energy industries.

In addition to his role with Conundrum Capital Corporation, Mr. Argiros is the founder of Arch Corporation, a private equity investment management firm with offices in Toronto and Dubai, that operates in the government-funded senior care sector.

Mr. Argiros holds a degree from the University of Toronto and is an accredited CPA. An active member of the community, Mr. Argiros has been the past president of The National Club of Toronto and ProAction Cops and Kids, an organization focusing on helping at-risk youth establish a positive relationship with police officers.