

Jordan Sarick

President, Samuel Sarick Limited and Eastwood Developments

Jordan Sarick leads Samuel Sarick Limited and its affiliate company Eastwood Developments, both family-owned holding companies specializing in diversified real estate investment, development and construction throughout the United States and Canada.

The Sarick family has established a trusted reputation for expertise in all aspects of commercial and industrial real estate as well as for their philanthropic and cultural commitment to the community. Jordan is active with organizations such as Mount Sinai Hospital, Aspen Jewish Congregation, and Upper Canada College.

Jordan holds an undergraduate degree from Vassar College and graduate degrees from London School of Economics and Columbia University Graduate School of Business.