

Japan: Medieval, Mysterious and Modern

November 5 - 18, 2017

Japan has always intrigued and fascinated us. It is, at the same time, one of the oldest and most modern of civilizations. Closed to westerners for centuries, we labeled it mysterious and exotic. It is a complex and rewarding destination and ROMtravel will unravel its diversity, intricacy, colour, culture and food.

In the modern city of Tokyo, we will see famous temples and gardens mingled with fantastic restaurants and shopping, then move on to the ancient imperial capitals of Kyoto and Nikko. November is fall colour time and the brilliant hues of the ginko trees and Japanese maples will provide a spectacular background for our travels.

But we will also get off the beaten track and get behind the façades of touristic Japan, as only ROMtravel with its reputation and contacts can.

We will travel through the Japanese Alps to stay at a hot spring, called an onsen; we will see traditional wood carvers at work and visit the secluded farm houses called gassho-zukuri, in a region which makes up a UNESCO World Heritage Site and transports us to a different time.

We will learn the secrets of the tea ceremony and see the highly developed style of the geiko women who entertain in geisha houses. Of course, we'll learn the stories of samurai warrior culture and see the forts and fortresses of medieval Japan.

Another unique highlight will be a boat trip on the Seto Inland Sea, and then onto Shikoku Island to trace the route of the Buddhist pilgrimage of the 88 shrines. You can walk through the groves of swaying bamboo which is harvested for traditional mats, baskets, cups and boxes, and see the gardens of the feudal Edo era. We will cruise by the spectacular Grand Seto Bridge linking the five islands – a marvellous sight to see by water.

We will stay in a traditional ryokan, or Japanese inn (with western beds unless you really want a tatami mat!).

And in Kyoto, Japan's most traditional city, the Golden Palace and the Heian Jingu shrine will impress.

Come and experience Japan with us. As you see the world through our eyes, you will delight in a trip that is unforgettable.
